Program Description:

We are honored to have Professor Michael H. Hoeflich present insights into Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes, Jr.'s reading. For more than half a century Justice Holmes kept a list of his thoughts, readings, and other things in a notebook known as the "Black Book." Although the Justice asked that the book be destroyed after his death, his executor ignored the instructions and gave the volume to Harvard Law School where it has resided since 1936. Professor Hoeflich will discuss the books included on the Justice's reading list, together with the list of books from the Justice's personal library that were donated to the Library of Congress, to explore Justice Holmes' mind through his reading.

Professor Hoeflich will join attorneys Chris Joseph and Diane Bellquist of Joseph, Hollander & Craft LLC for a panel discussion and CLE presentation, Ethics and Technology Competence.

This event is complimentary and includes 1.0 hour Ethics CLE Credit.
Light refreshments will be provided.
